Consignment policy:

- If you have something that you want to sell, I will be glad to list it on a 25% consignment basis.
- Items must have a value of $250 or more.
- Consignment items need to be sent to me. I will then photograph it and list the item on several websites. I will also contact any customers of mine that I believe might have a special interest in the item.
- Figure out the bottom price you will take and I will add my 25% to that. If I feel the item might sell for more, I will start the item at the higher price.
- You also have the option of having your gun(s) listed on Gunbroker as well as my website giving your items a wider buyer audience. If listed on Gunbroker, a fee is charged by them once an item sells. If you agree to list on Gunbroker 50% of that fee will be paid by you and I will pay the other 50% of all fees incurred.
- Once the item sells, and the funds clear the bank, I will ship the item to the customer who has a three(3) day inspection period. When the buyer has notified me that the item is acceptable, I will send the owner a check for the price it sold for less the commission.
- If an offer is made by a buyer that is less than the lowest acceptable price with commission, the owner will be contacted for approval.
- If the item(s) do not sell at the agreed upon pricing in 90 days, the prices can be lowered by mutual agreement or the item(s) returned to the owner.
- Shipping costs to send the item(s) to me and any return shipping to the owner will be paid by the owner.
- All buyers of consignment item(s) will pay the shipping cost to receive the item(s) and return shipping cost if they decide not to keep the item(s) during the 3 day inspection period..
